

Transparency

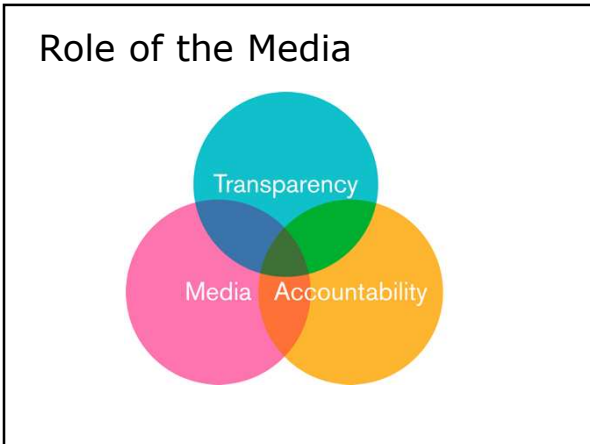

Accountability

Public Accountability

LeSage Review

“The one word that it comes down to is transparency. That doesn’t give you a lot of solutions, but it is one thing that is so important, as I believe it is in all the public domain. There are very few things that are more in the public domain than education.”

The Honourable Patrick LeSage, quoted from the September 2012 issue of Professionally Speaking

Public Awareness

LeSage Review

The Honourable Patrick LeSage and Lynn Mahoney

Recommendation 1: The College should develop a communication strategy to increase public awareness of the College and its mandate.

Public Awareness Initiative

Disciplinary Role

Disciplinary Accountability

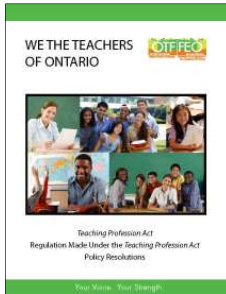

External Influence

Image source: Toronto Archives, Spacing Magazine
<http://www.flickr.com/photos/spacing/1205056479/in/set-72157600931740548>

External Influence

College of Teachers (AB96)

1. OTF is opposed to the College of Teachers as enacted by The Ontario College of Teachers' Act, 1996.
2. That OTF work for legislative changes which would repeal the College of Teachers imposed by The Ontario College of Teachers Act, 1996.

Council Governance

College's Election Regulation

- 23 of 37 members of the teaching profession
- prohibited positions with 13 identified organizations.

Council Elections

- union endorsed candidates
- acclaimed positions
- need to move beyond constituent politics.

Challenges

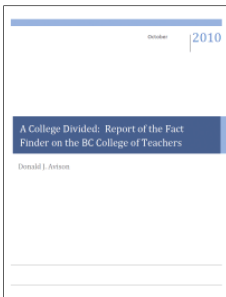

LeSage Review

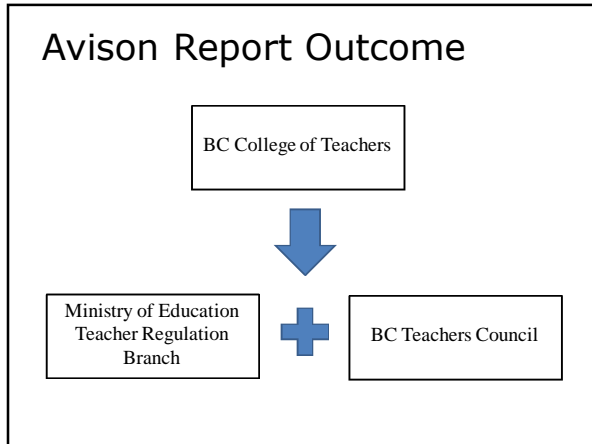

Recommendation 48: Members of the Investigation, Discipline and Fitness to Practise Committees should be prohibited from attending the caucus meetings, which are held between elected Council members and their unions/associations when the Council agenda is discussed.

Recommendation 49: Members of the Investigation, Discipline and Fitness to Practise Committees should be prohibited from holding any elected or appointed union/association positions during their tenure on those Committees.

BC College of Teachers

College Resources

Legislated Timelines

“Justice delayed is justice denied.”

William E. Gladstone

toronto

Contact Information

Joe Jamieson, OCT
Deputy Registrar
Ontario College of Teachers

T: 416-961-8800 x887
jjamieson@oct.ca

© CLEAR
Council on Licensure, Enforcement & Regulation
www.clearhq.org
